

Look and Listen

(sung to the tune of “If You’re Happy and You Know It”)

If you’re listening and you know it, look at me.

If you’re listening and you know it, look at me.

If you’re listening and you know it.

Then your eyes will surely show it!

If you’re listening and you know it, look at me.

If you’re listening and you know it, fold your hands.

If you’re listening and you know it, fold your hands.

If you’re listening and you know it.

Then your hands will surely show it!

If you’re listening and you know it, fold your hands.
